

Tara DePorte is a...

Thought-and-action leader who develops programs and creative collaborations that make the environment personal.

+1 646 932 4283
Tara@HumanImpactsInstitute.org
TaraDePorte.com

Experience as a...Leader. Educator. Facilitator.

Human Impacts Institute, Global, 2010-present, Founder and Executive Director

Develop and run an organization that catalyzes social change and environmental action through arts-based engagement. Programs to date are across the U.S. (9 cities), France, Germany, Brazil, and South Africa.

University Instructor, Global, 2006-present

- Webster University, Leiden, Netherlands, 2008-present, Adjunct Faculty
Develop and instruct Graduate and Undergraduate courses, including: Water: A Precious Resource, The Culture of Consumption; Development, Gender and Natural Resources (South Africa); Art as Social Change; Climate Concerns
- Syracuse University, Syracuse, 2012 Visiting Instructor/Artist
Develop and lead Undergraduate design workshop on effective visual communication of climate change issues
- Columbia University, NYC, 2006-2012, Visiting Lecturer
Develop and instruct Graduate classes, including: Gender and Energy; Creating Environmental Change; Communicating Climate Science and Policy
- The New School, NYC, 2011, Adjunct Faculty
Develop and lead course on environmental decision-making and how to transform ideas into real projects.

Environmental Consultant, Global, 2002-present

- Corporate Engagement, Global, 2006-present
Develop and lead corporate workshops on environmental sustainability and employee engagement. Past clients include: New York Presbyterian Hospital, Citigroup, Kiehl's, American Express, L'Oreal, and Nautica.
- Youth Education and Campaigns, NYC and LA, 2011-present
Develop and lead arts and environment programs for middle and high school youth, as well as teachers. Workshops include: Environmental Justice and Community Leadership, Water and Sanitation Issues in Latin America and the Caribbean, Creative Climate Campaigns, and Climate and Graphic Design.
- International Development and Coalition Building, Global, 2004-2006
Create, research, and facilitate interdisciplinary, multi-sectoral coalitions and training programs for policy, activism, and community solutions. Projects include: United Nations training for grassroots women (UNCSD, 2007); NYC Climate Coalition (NYC, 2007-2012); MobilizeUS! U.S. national coalition (US/Brazil, 2011-2012); United Nations Development Program Research: Best Practices in Water and Sanitation (Mexico City, Mexico, 2006), Environmental Economics Program, Latin America and the Caribbean, (NYC, 2005); Knowledge Fair on Local Governance, Latin America and the Caribbean, (Bogotá, Colombia, 2004).

Lower East Side Ecology Center, NYC, 2001-2010, Program Director

Develop and implement citywide education programs, team management, fundraising, and strategic partnerships.

Honors for...Climate. Communications. Policy.

- NewINC, 2019-2020, Mentor
Mentor for the world's first museum-led incubator for art, technology and design located in NYC.
- Federal Foreign Office of Germany, Berlin and Bonn, Germany, 2018, U.S. Delegate
U.S. representative to a Climate Policy for 2050 professional tour organized by the German Federal Foreign Office.
- IMéRA Institute for Advanced Study and OT-MED, Marseille, France, 2015, Fellow
Ten-month fellow for prestigious national program to bring foreign academics to work and study in France. Focus: Exploring the effective employment of the arts to communicate climate issues and inspire climate action.
- The Republic of China (Taiwan), Taiwan, 2014, UN Expert Delegate
One of eight UN expert delegates to participate in this state-sponsored delegation to Taiwan. Delegation meetings included a private meeting with the President, Legislative Yuan, as well as leading academic and political leaders.

- American Council on Germany, Berlin, Germany, 2012, Climate and Energy Fellow
One of seventeen U.S. participants to exchange with top officials in energy and climate issues.
- U.S. Department of State, Costa Rica, 2012, U.S. Professional Fellow
One of ten U.S. fellows to do a six month program and cultural exchange with ten Costa Rican fellows, with an emphasis on women's empowerment and social entrepreneurship.
- Women's Earth Alliance, Mexico City, Mexico, 2006, Environmental Women's Fellow
One of 30 women to participate in the International Grassroots Women Environmental Leaders Strategy Meeting, as well as, serving as a representative to the Fourth World Water Forum.

Creative Projects that...Inspire. Spark. Engage.

- Impact Stories, Human Impacts Institute, Global, 2011-present
Co-creator of program amplifying stories of climate solutions from around the world. Series include NYC Climate Heroes \(US\), Global Climate Sheroes, Bridging the Divide \(Germany/US\), and Climate Connections \(France\). Partners include NYC Department of Transportation, German Permanent Mission to the UN, French Permanent Mission to the UN, and the UNFCCC.
- Creative Climate Awards, Human Impacts Institute, NYC, 2011-present
Founder and curator of international, annual exhibitions on climate change, hosted by the Taiwanese government.
- House of Solutions, Human Impacts Institute, Governor's Island, NYC, 2019
Curated and led a city-wide artist residency and interactive workshop series focusing on the intersection of the arts, science, and climate solutions. The six-month long program engaged more than 10,000 participants from all over the world.
- "Think Like a Kid", NYC, 2017
Co-creator climate-awareness PSA bringing together top international policymakers with NYC kids.
- "Rise," Bronx Art Space, NYC, 2016
Co-developed and performed this immersive piece of personal, waterfront stories and climate connections.
- "What's Your Emotional Response to Climate?" Marseille, France, 2015
Interactive photo series shown in Marseille and Paris, sampling the public's emotional response to climate change.
- "Human Impacts Marseille," Marseille, France, 2015
Developed citywide installation and tour of personal approaches to climate change throughout the city of Marseille. Developed exhibit including sound installation, posters, and a series of original, large-scale paintings. Exhibit was at Longchamps Palace, the Mayor's Office, and numerous other museums and city landmarks.
- "(I'm)Possible Transformation," United Nations, NYC, 2014
Developed and performed a visual, sound, and movement-based work exploring the personal impact one person can have to inspire change. Commissioned by the Permanent Mission of Germany to the UN.
- "End Fossil Fuel Subsidies," United Nations Rio+20, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, 2012
Developed and led first-ever flash mob performance (200+ participants from around the world) at United Nations high-level conference.
- "Climate Carnival," East River State Park, NYC, 2012
Developed and performed multi-character piece to engage youth in climate change issues through a "carnival".
- "Climate Counseling," Times Square, NYC, 2011
Public performance piece engaging public through counseling sessions on climate emotions.

Education about...Science. Systems. Collaboration.

- Columbia University, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, 2005 Graduate Master of Arts: Climate and Society. Thesis: Participatory Water Management in Brazilian Northeast.
- University of Virginia, College of Arts and Sciences, 2001 Graduate
Bachelor of Arts with Distinction: Human Impacts on Ecosystems